

may require, or as he may be required by the County Commissioners or by the State's Attorney for Baltimore County; said justice of the peace so selected from the Ninth Election District to sit at his office at Towson, in said district, shall keep his office open every day (Sunday excepted) at such hours and times as his duties may require, or as he may be required to do by the County Commissioners or the State's Attorney for Baltimore County; and the said justice of the peace so selected from the Thirteenth Election District to sit at the station house at St. Denis, in said district, shall keep his office at the station house for which he was appointed open and shall attend said station house every day (Sunday excepted) at such hours as he may be required to do by the County Commissioners or by the State's Attorney for Baltimore County. When any such justice appointed to sit at Towson or any of the station houses aforesaid shall designate any other justice of the peace to act for him in his absence it shall first be necessary for him to obtain the consent of the County Commissioners allowing such justice to act for him. And the Governor shall upon the request of the Board of County Commissioners of Baltimore County designate one of the justices of the peace of the Fifteenth Election District of Baltimore County to act as a committing magistrate, and such justice of the peace when so designated, shall sit as a committing magistrate at such hours, on such days and at such places in said district as the County Commissioners of Baltimore County may designate.

1904, ch. 70. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 203. 1916, sec. 315. 1928, sec. 395.

395. The justice of the peace so selected to sit at any station house referred to in the preceding section may be changed from time to time by the Governor at his discretion during the term for which such justice was appointed, and any other justice of the peace appointed for said district may be selected by the Governor to perform the said duties at said station house.

1904, ch. 70. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 204. 1910, ch. 474, p. 595. 1916, sec. 316. 1928, sec. 396.

396. The several justices of the peace for Baltimore County, including the station house justices for said First, Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Election Districts, and the committing magistrate of the Ninth Election District, shall have jurisdiction concurrent with that exercised by the Circuit Court for said county in all cases of assault without any felonious intent; and in all cases of assault and battery, and in all misdemeanors not punishable by confinement in the penitentiary, which may be committed within said county, and shall have jurisdiction in all prosecutions or proceedings for the recovery of any penalty for doing or omitting to do any act, the doing of which or the omission to do which is made punishable under the laws of this State, within their said jurisdiction, by any pecuniary fine or penalty, or by imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction; provided, however, that said justices of the peace shall in no case have jurisdiction to try any person on
