B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 398.

398. It shall be the duty of the police officers appointed by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County when called upon so to do, to serve and execute any and all writs, warrants, subpoenas, and commitments which may be issued by the justices of the peace of Baltimore County in the exercise of their criminal jurisdiction, and they shall also serve and execute any and all writs, warrants, process or subpoenas issued by any justice of the peace in the exercise of his civil jurisdiction where such service may be made within the territory regularly patrolled by such police officer, said police officers to receive no additional compensation for such services; in all cases where such writs, warrants, subpoenas or other process are served by such police officers in civil cases the magistrate shall collect as part of the costs in said case for the use of the county the fees allowed by law to constables for such service and shall account to any pay over such fees at the same time and in the same manner as he is required to account for any pay over the other fees collected by him for the use of the county.

1904, ch. 70. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 208. 1916, sec. 320. 1928, sec. 399.

399. No justice of the peace, in any case of debt or damages whatever, shall issue a summons for the defendant except on application for the same by the plaintiff or his attorney, in person or in writing, accompanied with the cause or causes of action in said case; nor an execution except upon the order of the plaintiff or his attorney, in person or in writing, and if any justice of the peace shall issue a summons or execution contrary to the provisions of this section, or if any constable shall knowingly serve the same, such justice or constable shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and on conviction shall be disqualified from holding his office.

400. No justice of the peace for said county shall engage in the discharge of his duties as justice in a barroom of a tavern or public house of that character; and any justice so offending should be liable to indictment by the grand jury of said county, and on conviction shall be fined twenty dollars, to be paid to the County Commissioners of said county for the use of the county; and on a second conviction shall be disqualified from holding office.

1904, ch. 70. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 210. 1916, sec. 322. 1928, sec. 401.

401. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners on the last Tuesday in April in each year to appoint one of the constables in each district of the county to inspect licenses in the district; and the constables
