

to appear before the said justice of the peace, at the trial to be held on the second day after the filing of said complaint, to show cause why the prayer of said lessor should not be granted as aforesaid, and the said constable shall forthwith proceed to serve said summons upon said tenant, assignee or under tenant in said premises, or upon his or their known or authorized agent, but if for any reason, neither said tenant, assignee or under tenant, nor his or their agent can be found, then said constable shall affix an attested copy of said summons conspicuously upon said premises, and such affixing of said summons shall, for the purposes of this subdivision of this Article, be deemed and construed a sufficient service upon all persons whomsoever.

1929, ch. 311, sec. 330D.

409D. If at the trial on the second day aforesaid, the justice of the peace shall be satisfied the interest of justice will be better served by an adjournment to enable either party to procure his necessary witnesses, he may adjourn the trial for a period not exceeding one day, except by consent of all parties, and if at said trial or due adjournment thereof as aforesaid, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace before whom said complaint has been made and tried as aforesaid, that the rent or any part of the rent for said premises is actually due and unpaid, then the said justice of the peace shall give judgment in favor of said lessor for the amount of rent found due, with costs of suit, and shall order that said tenant and all persons claiming or holding by or under said tenant shall yield and render up possession of said premises unto said lessor, or unto his duly qualified agent or attorney within two days thereafter; provided, however, that if the said tenant, or some one for him, shall at said trial or due adjournment thereof as aforesaid, tender the rent found to be due and unpaid, together with the costs of said suit, the said complaint shall be entered satisfied and no further proceedings shall be had thereunder.

1929, ch. 311, sec. 330E.

409E. In case judgment shall be given in favor of said lessor in the manner aforesaid, and the tenant shall fail to comply with the requirements of said order within two days aforesaid, the said justice of the peace shall, on or at any time after the expiration of said two days, issue his warrant, directed to any constable of Baltimore County, that the lessor may elect, ordering him to cause said lessor to have again and repossess said premises by putting him (or his duly qualified agent or attorney for his benefit) in possession thereof, and for that purpose to remove from said premises, by force if necessary, all the furniture, implements, tools, goods, effects or other chattels of every description whatsoever belonging to said tenant, or to any person claiming or holding by or under said tenant.

1929, ch. 311, sec. 330F.

409F. The tenant may appeal from the judgment of the justice of peace to the Circuit Court of Baltimore County, at any time within two
