

The Mayor of Frostburg, elected by the qualified voters of said Town at the election held on the first Tuesday of April, 1925, for a term of office heretofore fixed by law at two years; shall hold office for an additional year and there shall be no election held on the first Tuesday of April, 1927, for the election of said Mayor, it being the intent and purpose of this provision that the term of the Mayor and all the Councilmen of said Town shall expire at one and the same time and that hereafter general elections in said Town for the purpose of electing the Mayor and Councilmen shall be conducted every two years instead of every year.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 135. 1886, ch. 166. 1902, ch. 88, sec. 135.
1927, ch. 195, sec. 135.

191. There shall be four Councilmen all of whom shall be elected on the first Tuesday of April in the year 1928, and biennially thereafter by the persons qualified to vote for Mayor as prescribed by the preceding section and each Councilman so elected shall hold office for two years. Either men or women possessing the qualifications hereafter set forth, shall be eligible to hold said office. Said Councilmen shall be citizens of the United States, residents of the said Town for one year next preceding their election, and qualified to vote at such election in the Ward in which they reside; they shall at the time of their election and during their full term of office each own real estate in said Town of the assessed value of at least three hundred dollars; provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the Councilmen whose term of office has not yet expired. The three Councilmen of Frostburg elected by the qualified voters of said Town at the election held on the first Tuesday of April, 1925, for a term of office hereto fixed by law at two years, shall hold office for an additional year, and there shall be no election held on the first Tuesday of April, 1927, for the election of said three Councilmen, it being the intent and purpose of this provision that the terms of the Mayor and all the Councilmen of said Town shall expire at one and the same time and that hereafter general elections in said Town for the purpose of electing the Mayor and four Councilmen shall be conducted every two years instead of every year.

The Mayor and four Councilmen so constituted shall have control and supervision over all the departments of the said City, and to that end shall have power to make and enforce such rules and regulations as they may see fit and proper for and concerning the organization, management and operation of all the departments of said City, and whatever agencies may be created for the administration of its affairs. The Mayor and four Councilmen, shall, by a majority vote, elect from among the four Councilmen one who shall be known as "Police and Fire Commissioner," and who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all police regulations in said City and general supervision over the Fire Department thereof; one Commissioner to be known as the "Commissioner of Streets and Public Property," who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property of said City,
