416. If any person residing in Baltimore County, on or before the dates mentioned in the preceding section, shall file in writing with the clerk of said court any reason why the license applied for should not be granted, such clerk shall forthwith present the application and certificate and objections to a judge of the Circuit Court for said county, and such judge shall proceed to hear and determine the question or matter of the issuing of the license applied for upon all the testimony adduced with respect thereto, after giving such notice to the applicant or applicants and objector or objectors, as such judge shall deem reasonable; and if upon said heading it be proved upon the testimony or shall appear to the satisfaction of the court, or the presiding judge or judges thereof, that the applicant or applicants has or have permitted gambling upon his, her or its premises, or has knowingly sold spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind to minors or has knowingly sold or permitted any such liquors to be bartered or sold on Sunday or on any general or primary election day or has or have knowingly permitted disorderly or immoral conduct or practices upon his, her, their or its premises, no license shall be granted, and his, her, their or its application shall be refused. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County within five days after receipt of filing of any application for a license hereunder to furnish to the presiding judge or judges of said court, the name or names of the applicants for such license, place where the business is to be carried on thereunder, the names of the signers recommending that the license referred to be issued and such other matters set forth in said application as the clerk in any particular case may deem it proper for the court to know; and it shall be the duty of the judge or judges presiding in said court, regardless of the fact whether any protest or objection shall or shall not have been filed as aforesaid, to refuse to grant or
