

room, dwelling house, building, structure, or premises whatsoever, mentioned in the application and license as the place where spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors are to be sold, offered for sale or disposed of as aforesaid, as well as a license to the person or persons to whom the same is issued or granted, and in the event that any of the conditions upon which such license shall have been issued or granted or any provision of the law relating to the same or to the sale or disposition of spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors in Baltimore County shall be violated at or upon the said place, room, dwelling house, building, structure or premises, or in the event that such license shall for any sufficient reason under this Act be revoked or forfeited, then it shall be unlawful for any license to be thereafter granted or issued to sell any such liquors at such place, room, dwelling, house, premises, building or structure whatsoever or upon the site, land or ground thereof or appurtenant thereto within a period of five years after such violation, revocation or forfeiture, and any license therefor within such period is hereby strictly prohibited; and such prohibition shall not relieve or exempt the person or persons to whom such license shall have been issued from any punishment, penalty, forfeiture or liability prescribed by this Act for any violation of the provisions hereof or of any of the conditions upon which a license hereunder shall have been issued to such person or persons or from any penalty, punishment, forfeiture or liability prescribed by any law relating to the sale or disposition of intoxicating liquors of any kind in Baltimore County for the violation thereof.

Shea v. State, 148 Md. 256.

1916, ch. 31, sec. 9B. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 342. 1928, sec. 421.

421. Only one bar and no more shall be conducted or maintained under or by virtue of any wholesale or retail license authorized to be granted or issued by this Act, and such bar shall be indivisible, so that no one bar conducted or maintained under any license granted or issued hereunder shall consist of more than one single, undivided structure; and not more than one license shall be granted or issued to any person, firm, association, company or corporation, and a man and his wife shall be deemed and considered as one person hereunder.

1916, ch. 31, sec. 9C. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 343. 1928, sec. 422.

422. It shall be the duty of the judges or of any judge presiding in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County upon complaint made in writing under oath by any citizen of Baltimore County, and after granting a hearing upon reasonable notice to the licensee or licensees complained of and upon proof satisfactory to said judges or judge, that any person or persons licensed to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors in Baltimore County has or have in any manner or respect violated any provision of the law under which such license shall have been issued to him or them, or any law relating to the sale or disposition of such liquors in Baltimore County, or has or have violated any of the conditions whatso-
