

monly called Sunday, at which spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor of any kind, or lager beer or near-beer, are drunk or to be drunk on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, or who shall furnish any person or officer or member of any corporation, association or club with any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor of any kind, or lager beer or near-beer, to be drunk at any picnic, crab feast, shad bake, barbecue, oyster roast or feast or other entertainment or assemblage in Baltimore County on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned in jail or in the House of Correction of Maryland for not less than thirty days, or suffer both fine and imprisonment, as aforesaid, in the discretion of the court.

Benesch v. State, 129 Md. 505.

1890, ch. 334. 1908, ch. 179, sec. 10. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 230. 1916, ch. 31, B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 347. 1928, sec. 426.

426. No person having a license under the provisions of this Act shall sell or give away any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind on the Sabbath Day, commonly called Sunday, or upon any day on which general or primary election is now or may hereafter be held, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind to any minor, nor shall he knowingly sell or give away any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind to any drunkard, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind to any person whose parents, guardian, husband or wife shall have given such licensee notice in writing under oath that such person is of intemperate habits, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind or any other liquors or beverage, whether the same be spirituous, fermented, vinous, malt, brewed or intoxicating or not, at his place of business or at any place appurtenant to the premises where said business is conducted between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight and 5 o'clock A. M. at any time. Any violation of any provision of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by sentence of imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than thirty days and by the imposition of such pecuniary fine in addition to such sentence of imprisonment as the court may deem proper.

Kenny v. State, 121 Md. 121. Mulkern v. State, 127 Md. 42. Benesch v. State, 129 Md. 505.

1890, ch. 334. 1900, ch. 702. 1908, ch. 179, sec. 11. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 231. 1916, ch. 31, sec. 11. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 348. 1928, sec. 427.

427. No person having a wholesale or retail license to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors at any place shall place or maintain, or permit to be placed or maintained, any screen, blind, curtain, partition or any obstruction that will interfere with a view of the business conducted on the premises.