B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 349. 1928, sec. 428.

428. Every person receiving a wholesale or retail license under this Act to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors shall frame his license under glass and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read in his place of making sales, and no license issued under this Act shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect this requirement. Every person or corporation similarly receiving a brewer's license shall have affixed in some conspicuous place upon each vehicle from which delivery of liquor is made in Baltimore County a liquor license tag, obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, the said tags to be provided by the said clerk in some durable form, printed or painted on metal, in such manner as to clearly identify the license year in which issued, and for each such liquor license tag applied for by and issued to the holder of a brewer's license there must be paid the sum of twenty-five dollars to said clerk.

B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 350. 1928, sec. 429.

429. If any person shall hereafter be convicted of selling spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any kind without having procured a license therefor under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer or informers, and undergo imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months.

1890, ch. 334. 1908, ch. 177. 1908, ch. 179, sec. 14. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 234.
1916, ch. 31, sec. 14. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 351. 1928, sec. 430.

430. If any person having a license under the provisions of this Act shall violate any of the provisions of this Act upon conviction thereof, except in the cases enumerated in Sections 426, 429 and 431, he shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or undergo imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than thirty days, in the discretion of the court; and on conviction a second time, he shall pay a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars or undergo imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months, in the discretion of the court, and in addition to such fine or imprisonment his license shall be revoked, forfeited and suppressed.
