

and be charged with the duty of keeping the streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property in a clean and sanitary condition and with the enforcement of all rules and regulations necessary to these ends; one Commissioner to be known as the "Water and Electric Light Commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the construction, maintenance and operation of water, electric light, and fire alarm systems and departments of said City and shall see to the enforcement of all regulations with respect to said systems and departments; and one Commissioner to be known as the Commissioner of Finance and Revenue, who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all laws for the assessment and collection of taxes of every kind, and the collection of all revenues belonging to said City from whatever source the same may be derived, and who shall examine into and keep informed as to the finances of said City. The Mayor of said City shall have the right to appoint any standing or select committees not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 136. 1870, ch. 77. 1902, ch. 88, sec. 136.
1927, ch. 195, sec. 136.

192. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg, for each municipal election, shall appoint three judges of election for each of the said wards, who shall have power to appoint clerks and conduct elections in all respects as elections have heretofore been conducted in said town under the provisions of Chapter 77 of the Acts of 1870, opening the polls at nine o'clock in the morning and closing them at seven o'clock in the evening; and the said judges and clerks of election shall receive the same compensation as the judges and clerks of election in Allegany County, to be paid by the town; and the officers of registration appointed under Section 231 of this Article shall, in pursuance of the provisions of said section make such changes, alterations and transfers as may be necessary for making and maintaining correct lists of the qualified voters in each of said wards.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 137. 1878, ch. 255.

193. In case of the death, refusal to act, resignation or disqualification of any of the councilmen, it shall be the duty of the mayor and councilmen, or remaining councilmen, to fill such vacancy or vacancies, by joint ballot, at their next meeting, and to certify to the clerk of the circuit court within ten days thereafter the name or names of the person or persons so appointed as councilmen.

1914, ch. 239, sec. 1.

194. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg may fill any and all vacancies occurring in any of the offices of said Town for the remainder of the term of office in which vacancy shall occur, if the vacancies shall be in the office of Mayor or Councilmen, those remaining in office shall fill said vacancy.