

General Laws of this State, or under any special law thereof, to give, barter or sell any spirituous or fermented liquors to any member of said club or corporation, or to any other person, without having first taken out a license under the provisions of this Act, and the application of any such club or corporation for such license shall be made by the steward or any other officer of said club or corporation in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 413 and 414 of this Article, and notice of such application shall be published as required in Section 415 of this Article, for cases where such application is filed by any individual.

1908, ch. 179, sec. 20. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 357. 1928, sec. 436.

436. That any person, club or corporation desiring to obtain, under the provisions of this Act, a license for twelve months on the first day of May, 1908, shall not be required to file the application therefor on or before the first day of April in the year 1908, as provided in Section 413 of this Article, but may file the same to the fifteenth day of April 1908, and the clerk of said court shall give prior notice at least one week notice of said application by one insertion in two newspapers published in Baltimore County; provided, the objections to licenses for the year 1908, may be filed at any time before the twenty-fifth day of April, 1908.

1900, ch. 702. 1908, ch. 179, sec. 21. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 244. 1916, ch. 31, sec. 21. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 358. 1928, sec. 437.

437. Any holder of license to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors at retail may be permitted to sell or assign said license to another person to be used at the same place or another place of business in said county; provided the said purchaser or assignee or intended purchaser or assignee shall make due application therefor on the recommendation of ten reputable taxpayers, advertisement of same in newspapers, etc., as required in case of an original application for such license, and if no objections are interposed in the manner set forth in an original application and the court shall order the transfer to be made, then the said Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall endorse the transfer upon the license and shall be entitled to receive a fee of fifty cents therefor, and the same shall then take effect; but if there should be an objection filed to the transfer or assignment of said license, then the same proceedings shall be had before a judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County as in the case of objection to an original application and the costs of the same to be taxed in the same manner. No person indicted or convicted under this Act shall assign or transfer any license or any interest in any license, held by or issued to him, after indictment or information against him or after conviction thereupon.

1900, ch. 702. 1908, ch. 179, sec. 21. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 244. 1916, ch. 31, sec. 21A. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 359. 1928, sec. 438.

438. In addition to the powers conferred by Section 437 of this Article, any holders of a license to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors at retail may assign, hypothecate or pledge said license to any per-
