

license applied for, in which the persons certifying shall each state his residence, place of business and that the location of the proposed moving-picture exhibition will not be detrimental to the interests of the taxpayers in the vicinity, and no person shall certify to more than one application.

1914, ch. 545, sec. 5. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 419. 1928, sec. 503.

503. Upon the filing of said application and certificate the applicant shall pay to the clerk with whom the same is filed the sum of four dollars, to be applied to paying the expense of advertising hereinafter provided for, and thereupon such clerk shall within one week after the filing of said application publish a notice in some newspaper published in Baltimore County and shall continue to publish said notice for two successive weeks; said notice shall state the applicant or applicants have filed such application, the place where the business is to be conducted and that unless cause is shown to the contrary on or before twenty-one days from the filing of said application the license applied for will be issued; provided the applicant abides with the requirements of this law thereto.

504. If any person shall file in writing with such clerk any reason why the license applied for shall not be granted, such clerk shall forthwith present the application and certificate and the objection to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, who shall hear and determine the question as to whether the license applied for shall be issued or not, after giving such notice to the parties as may be reasonable.

1914, ch. 545, sec. 7. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 421. 1928, sec. 505.

505. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County may at any time, after a public hearing and due notice to the parties, revoke any license granted under the authority of this Act when it shall be made to appear to them that the business for which said license was granted is being operated in a manner detrimental to the public safety or welfare.

1914, ch. 545, sec. 8. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 422. 1928, sec. 506.

506. Nothing in this Act shall be taken or construed to prevent the County Commissioners of Baltimore County from issuing permits without charge for the holding of entertainments for charitable, religious or educational purposes.
