

1920, ch. 164, sec. 438H. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 531.

531. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County be and they are hereby authorized to make such provision for pensioning the widow and infant children of policemen who have been killed in the active discharge of their duty as members of the Police Department as in the judgment of such Commissioners shall be just and proper.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 175. 1886, ch. 486. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 291.
1916, sec. 439. 1928, sec. 532.

532. It shall be the duty of said marshal to require each policeman, at such times of the day or night as he may be upon duty, to preserve the public peace, prevent crime and protect the rights of persons and property, to see that all laws relating to the observance of Sunday and in regard to gambling, intemperance, vagrants and disorderly persons are strictly enforced and to assist the sanitary officer of his district to enforce faithfully and strictly all laws, rules, and orders that now exist or which may hereafter be passed or issued for the purpose of maintaining and preserving the public health, and to arrest all offenders against the laws of the State and to take such offenders to the nearest justice of the peace for said county; and for any neglect or violation of the provisions of this section by any officer of the force, said marshal shall suspend such officer and report his action in the case, with the charges preferred in writing against such officer, to the County Commissioners at their next meeting, for their investigation and final action.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 176. 1886, ch. 486. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 292.
1908, ch. 198. 1910, ch. 199, p. 572. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 440.
1928, sec. 533.

533. The pay of each patrolman shall not be less than seventy dollars per month and the pay of the marshal shall not be less than one hundred dollars per month, and the pay of such other officers as the County Commissioners may designate in order to promote the proper government, discipline and efficiency of said police force shall not be less than seventy dollars per month; all pay rolls to be made out monthly and certified as required by the County Commissioners; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be taken to regulate the pay of any special officer or station house keeper now or hereafter to be appointed by the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County, but their pay shall be entirely in the discretion of said County Commissioners.

B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 441. 1918, ch. 231. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 534.

534. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall levy annually a sufficient sum, upon the taxable property in Baltimore County to pay said policemen, including the marshal or officers of any other designation or rank on said force, and for such other and proper expenses as in their judgment may be required to promote the efficiency, discipline and usefulness of such police force.
