

execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of disorderly conduct or any disturbance whatever. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duty and shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers, rights and authority, in addition to those herein provided, as the Mayor and Councilmen may require and confer upon him, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State and the provisions of this Act. In the case of absence, sickness or inability to act of the Chief of Police, the Police Commissioner or the Mayor and Councilmen shall have the power and it shall be their duty to designate some other member of said police department as acting Chief of Police during the period of such absence, sickness or inability of said Chief of Police.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 143. 1878, ch. 255. 1902, ch. 88, sec. 143. 1916, ch. 58. 1918, ch. 254. 1929, ch. 336.

202. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg may allow their Clerk, Treasurer, Chief of Police, Policemen, and other officers such reasonable compensation for their services as they may deem proper and shall have the power to dismiss any of them, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 201 of this Article, at pleasure. The Mayor shall receive a salary of Five Hundred Dollars per annum, and the four Councilmen shall each receive a salary of Three Hundred Dollars per annum.

DAMAGES.

1927, ch. 195, sec. 142B.

203. Before the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg shall be liable for damages of any kind, the person injured or someone in his behalf shall give the Mayor or City Clerk notice in writing of such injury within thirty days after the same has been received, stating specifically in such notice when, where, and how the injury occurred and the extent thereof. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg shall never be liable on account of any damage or injury to person or property arising from or occasioned by any public street, highway, or grounds, including accumulations of snow or ice or any public work of the city unless the specific defect or the accumulation of snow or ice causing the damage or injury shall have been actually known to the Mayor or City Engineer by personal inspection for a period of at least twenty-four hours prior to the occurrence of the injury or damage, unless the attention of the Mayor or the Engineer shall have been called thereto by notice thereof in writing at least twenty-four hours prior to the occurrence of the injury or damage and proper diligence has not been used to rectify the defect or cause said accumulations of snow or ice to be removed after actually known or called to the attention of the Mayor and City Engineer as aforesaid.
