

1927, ch. 100. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 601.

601. The Roads Engineer of Baltimore County shall have the power and authority to approve in writing the general plan of streets, avenues and highways which may be adopted by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, or as any plan so adopted may be amended. Said Roads Engineer may formulate a general plan of laying out and locating streets, alleys and highways in Baltimore County, and recommend the same to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, who, if they approve the same, are authorized to accept and adopt it as a general plan for the location of streets, and ways in said territory, and no avenues, streets, alleys, roads or ways in Baltimore County within three miles of the boundary line of Baltimore City, shall hereafter be opened, established or condemned, nor shall the dedication of the same be adopted, nor sewer or water pipes laid therein, unless the same, including alignment and established grades, shall have been approved in writing by the said Roads Engineer of Baltimore County, or unless the same shall conform to the general plan and grades of streets, alleys and ways which may be adopted for said territory by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, or as any plan so adopted may be amended.

1904, ch. 465. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 358. 1914, ch. 465. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 512.
1928, sec. 602.

602. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall make no contract for work or materials of any kind to be done or furnished in connection with any of their duties under this Act for an amount exceeding two hundred dollars in amount, without requiring the party contracting to do such work for furnishing such material to give a bond, with security to be approved by the said County Commissioners, for the proper performance of such contract and shall make no payments on account of such contract unless the Roads Engineer of the county shall approve the same.

1927, ch. 24. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 603.

603. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall have full power to agree and contract with owners of land or materials, the use of which may be required in connection with the opening of any new road, the construction or repair of any bridge, the relocating, straightening or widening of any road, the proper drainage of the roads of the county or in connection with any other of its duties under this Act, and if they be unable for any reason to agree with the owners of any such land or materials, the use of which is required for any such purposes, said County Commissioners of Baltimore County may proceed to condemn the same under the provisions of the law relative to condemnation by corporations, municipal or otherwise, as fully as though they were the corporation named in the several sections of said laws.
