

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 234. 1880, ch. 329. 1888, ch. 546. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 395. 1914, ch. 517. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 538. 1928, sec. 634.

634. Whenever any examiner or examiners shall be appointed by the County Commissioners as hereinbefore provided for in this subtitle of this Article, he or they, after taking the oath required by the provisions of this subtitle of this Article, before proceeding to collect any assessments made for benefits by him or them, shall file a bond with at least two sureties in double the amount of the sums of money collectible, being the difference between the damages and the benefits assessed by him or them, to be approved by the County Commissioners, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of his or their duty as examiner or examiners, which bond shall be to the State of Maryland and made to the benefit of any person or persons aggrieved, injured or damaged in any manner by the proceedings of said examiner or examiners.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 235. 1880, ch. 329. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 396. 1914, ch. 517. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 539. 1928, sec. 635.

635. If any such examiner or examiners shall die or refuse or neglect to file the said bond or proceed with the duties required of them by this subtitle of this Article at any time after his or their appointment, the County Commissioners, upon application being made them, with satisfactory proof of the death, refusal or neglect as aforesaid, shall, in case of the death of any such examiner or examiners, at their next regular meeting, appoint another or others; and in case of such refusal or neglect as aforesaid, they shall give such examiner or examiners notice, and if he or they shall continue so to neglect or refuse as aforesaid for thirty days thereafter they shall appoint another or other examiners.

1888, Art. 3, sec. 236. 1880, ch. 329. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 397. 1914, ch. 517. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 540. 1928, sec. 636.

636. All moneys received by any such examiner or examiners for benefits or from any other source in connection with the opening, paving, grading and curbing of any street, alleyway or thoroughfare under the provisions of this subtitle of this Article shall be deposited as hereinbefore required in some bank in the City of Baltimore, to be designated by the County Commissioners, to the credit of the street, alleyway or thoroughfare proposed to be opened, graded, paved or curbed, and by such bank be kept separate from any other funds which said examiner or examiners may have on deposit in said bank; and in case of the appointment of another or other examiners under the provisions of the preceding section, such moneys shall be paid out by such bank upon the check, order or warrant of such other examiner or examiners.

P. P. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 237. 1880, ch. 329. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 398. 1914, ch. 517. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 541. 1928, sec. 637.

637. Whenever it may be desirable to have an alley laid off and established and condemned, opened, graded and constructed in any portion of the territory of Baltimore County in which streets and avenues have al-