

desiring "No Parking" spaces in front of such building, shall make application to the Board of County Commissioners setting forth all relevant information and stating the number of feet desired for such purpose. The Board of County Commissioners shall have authority to grant or refuse such application in its discretion, or it may grant the same with such restrictions and limitations as it may deem proper. In case such application is granted, the Commissioners shall issue to the applicant a permit or certificate setting forth the location of such "No Parking" space, the number of feet frontage fixed, and such other limitations as may be pertinent. Such permit may at any time be withdrawn or further limited by the Board of County Commissioners. To enforce the provisions of such permit the holder of the same shall have the right to place "No Parking" signs on the building marking the limits of such "No Parking" space. Such signs shall be of such size, character and description as required by the County Commissioners, and there shall also be painted, either on the curb, pavement or roadway, appropriate signs or marks showing the limits of the "No Parking" space, so as aforesaid granted; but the erection of such signs, and painting of the curb, pavement or roadway, shall be done under the direction of the Board of County Commissioners and at the expense of the holder of the permit. The signs, as herein provided for shall bear the number of the permit issued therefor by the Board of County Commissioners, provided, however, that no vehicle shall be allowed to remain in any such special "No Parking" space designated by the County Commissioners longer than may be reasonably necessary to load or unload passengers, baggage freight or merchandise.

1927, ch. 258, sec. 8. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 660.

660. It shall be unlawful for any person to imitate any sign, standard, post or paint on the pavement, curb or roadway, any marks or lines similar to those used by or erected by authority of the Board of County Commissioners, to direct, control or restrict traffic, or parking of vehicles on the public highways in the county aforesaid.

1927, ch. 258, sec. 9. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 661.

661. It shall be unlawful for any person to wilfully deface, injure, move or interfere with any sign, standard, post, safety zone, semaphore, tower, automatic signal or any other traffic directing device erected by the authority of the Board of County Commissioners; or with any lines or marks painted, by authority of the said County Commissioners, on any pavement, curb or roadway for the purpose of directing traffic or parking of vehicles.

1927, ch. 258, sec. 10. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 662.

662. It shall be unlawful for any person to fail, neglect or refuse to comply with any instruction or direction on any post, standard, sign, automatic signal or other device created or erected by authority of the Board of County Commissioners, or with any directing lines or marks painted
