Third. All money, property of any kind or securities that may come into the hands of said Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County for the purpose of said Teachers' Retirement Fund by gift, grant, devise, bequest or otherwise.

1912, ch. 93, sec. 376H. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 592. 1928, sec. 730.

730. The Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County or the Board of District Trustees of the respective schools, or either of them, or both, as the case may be, may retire from regular duty, upon its or their motion, and shall retire from regular duty, upon his or her own motion, in either case the approval of the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County to be first obtained, any teacher who has been such for a period of thirty-five years at the time such application is made; and the teachers so retired, provided he or she shall be entitled to the advantages of this Act under Sections 727 or 728 hereof, shall receive for life the salary provided for by Section 737. Every teacher who is such at the time of the passage of this Act, for the purpose of retirement under this section or the next succeeding section, after service of twenty years as a member of the teaching force of Baltimore County, shall be entitled to full credit for his or her years of service as a school teacher elsewhere.

1912, ch. 83, sec. 376-I. 1924, ch. 499. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 593. 1928, sec. 731.

731. The Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County or the Board of District Trustees of the respective schools, or either of them, or both, as the case may be, shall retire from regular duty, upon his or her own application, any teacher who has been such for a period of twenty years at the time such application is made and who is disabled or incapacitated from performing regular duty; provided the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County shall find such teacher so disabled or incapacitated after an examination made by a physician appointed by said Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County, the examination fee or charge to be paid by the teacher examined, and the teacher so retired, provided he or she shall be entitled to the advantages of this Act under Sections 727 and 728 hereof, shall receive for life a salary of as many thirtieths of that provided for by Section 737, as he or she may have served years at the time of such retirement, not exceeding, however, in any year an amount equal to fifty per cent. of such teacher's average annual salary for the five years immediately preceding retirement; and if the Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County or the Board of District Trustees of the respective schools or either of them, or both, as the case may be, shall deem any teacher who has been such for a period of five years at the time
