

of the notices herein provided for are given to the disabled or incapacitated from performing regular duty, the said Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County or the Board of District Trustees of the respective schools, or either of them, or both, as the case may be, shall serve written notice to that effect upon the said teacher, and upon the president or secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County, and proceedings shall then be had, after the notice provided for in Section 733, in accordance with the provisions of said section if the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County, after such proceedings are had, shall find the said teacher to be incapacitated from performing regular duty, the Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County or the Board of District Trustees of the respective schools, or either of them, or both, as the case may be, may retire such teacher from regular duty, and such teacher, if so retired, shall be entitled to a salary in the same manner and amount as if he or she had been retired upon his or her own application under this section.

1912, ch. 83, sec. 376J. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 594. 1928, sec. 732.

732. Unless teachers who may be retired under the two preceding sections shall have paid into said Teachers' Retirement Fund by way of assessment or otherwise an amount equal at least to that which he or she shall be entitled to receive as a salary for the first year of retirement, the said Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County shall deduct one-fifth of the deficiency thereof from the amount of said salary for each of the first five years that the same may be payable.

While the title of ch. 499, Acts of 1924, states that it repeals this section, there is no such provision in the Act.

1912, ch. 83, sec. 376L. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 595. 1928, sec. 733.

733. After any teacher shall have been retired under Section 731, the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County shall have the right at any time to cause such teacher again to be brought before it and examined by its physician and also to examine other witnesses for the purpose of ascertaining whether such teacher shall remain on the retired roll. The fee or charge of the examining physician shall be paid by the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County. Such teacher shall be entitled to at least thirty days' notice and to be present at the hearing of any such evidence, shall be permitted to propound any questions pertinent or relative to such matter and shall have the right to introduce evidence upon his or her own behalf. Such teachers and all witnesses shall be examined under oath and any member of said Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County is hereby authorized and empowered to administer such oath, and the said Board of Trustees is authorized and empowered to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance to testify before it in all matters relating to the operation of this Act. If the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County shall find such teacher qualified
