

such cases by law for the recovery of the penalty thereto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines not exceeding fifty ($50.00) dollars in any one case as to them may appear just and proper, and in default of payment of any fine so imposed, they may provide for imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding twenty days in the County Jail or until said fine is paid. Instead of the aforesaid penalties, it shall be lawful in case of conviction of any person for vagrancy to sentence such persons to hard work on the streets of said town for a period not exceeding ten days.

17. The said The Mayor and Commissioners of Barton shall have power to levy an equal tax within the corporate limits of said town, to such an extent or amount each year not exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of assessed valuation as they may deem necessary for the government of said town. Taxes so levied and assessed shall be properly collected by the bailiff of said town and by the said bailiff paid over as collected, or within five days thereafter to the Treasurer of said town; and the bailiff of said town shall have the same power to distrain for taxes as the Treasurer of Allegany County now has to distrain for the same; and the said Mayor and Commissioners shall fix the amount of bond, the rate of compensation and prescribe the duties of said bailiff; said bond shall guarantee the collection of all taxes imposed by the Mayor and Commissioners of Barton except such insolvencies as may from time to time be allowed by the said The Mayor and Commissioners. And the said The Mayor and Commissioners, at any time after their election held under this Act, may appoint two persons, citizens of said town, to assess and value all property located within said corporate limits, and shall pass all ordinances necessary, and to prescribe the duties and powers of said assessors; provided, however, that the assessment for town purposes shall not exceed the assessment for State and County purposes, and the said The Mayor and Commissioners shall have power to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the assessment, reassessment, transfer and appeals from assessment, of properties of said town; or the said The Mayor and Commissioners may accept for said assessment purposes the values placed upon the real and personal property within said town as are placed thereon by the State and County Assessment.

18. All fines or forfeitures imposed by the ordinance of the town of Barton shall be imposed by a Justice of the Peace of Allegany for the election district in which said town is located, upon a warrant to be issued, directed to the bailiff or any policemen, and the person so convicted and in default of payment thereof, may be committed to the jail in Allegany County, or any other places of confinement provided by the said The Mayor and Commissioners.
