227. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or any ordinance of said town, may be recovered in the name of the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg, before the Mayor or any Justice of the Peace, as small debts, and shall be paid to the Mayor and Councilmen for the use of the town.

POWERS.

1922, ch. 31, sec. 161.

228. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg shall have full power to regulate, charge for and grant and revoke licenses for marketable commodities and for carrying on any business within the limits of said city, and more specifically in connection therewith, but not by way of limitations or restrictions upon the general powers herein set forth, to regulate and provide for the issuing of licenses or permits for all hawking, peddling and vending of wares and merchandise of every description upon the streets and highways of the city, and to impose and demand or revoke a license from all players or showmen exhibiting in said city, and to provide for licensing theatres and to regulate, restrain or license theatricals, circuses, carnivals or other public amusements exhibited for gain within said town; to regulate, issue and revoke licenses for the business of conducting auction stores, restaurants, saloons, near-beer saloons, hotels or any other business enterprise carried on within said city, carriages, wagons or other vehicles used in said city and upon the streets thereof for the purpose of carrying passengers or goods, and auctioneers crying any sale or sales upon the public streets.

The Mayor and Councilmen shall have full power to regulate and license persons therein collecting money in advance from the inhabitants of said city for the payment of subscriptions to magazines and newspapers or other merchandise.

The Mayor and Councilmen shall impose a license fee of seventy-five dollars per annum upon all saloons, hotels, taverns, restaurants and all other places therein where malt, spirituous, fermented or vinous liquors are sold, and they are hereby given full power and authority to pass such ordinances as may be deemed necessary for the regulation and control of the traffic in said liquors within said town. To insure the observance of said ordinances or offenses set forth in said ordinances, in addition to the action of debt or such other civil remedies as exist in such cases by law for the recovery of the penalties thereunto affixed, the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg may affix such reasonable fine not exceeding one
