

1900, ch. 639, sec. 3.

235. It shall be the duty of the Mayor and Councilmen to furnish the collector with books for keeping his accounts in, shall furnish him with a list of all taxes, water rents and assessments which books he shall return to the Mayor and Councilmen when he shall have completed the duties of his office and when he shall have paid over to the Treasurer of the said Town all money that was his duty to collect, then the said Mayor and Councilmen shall return to him his bond. In case of default of any tax collector suit may be brought against his bondsmen within five years from the expiration of his term of office.

1900, ch. 639, sec. 4.

236. If the tax collector shall neglect to report as required by the foregoing section he may be called before the Mayor and Councilmen and by them fined the sum of ten dollars, which fine may be deducted from his salary or collected as other fines are.

1900, ch. 639, sec. 5.

237. Before the tax collector shall enter upon his duties he shall take and subscribe to the following oath, before the Mayor, I——having been elected tax collector by the Mayor and Councilmen of the town of Frostburg, in the presence of Almighty God, do solemnly promise and declare that I will faithfully perform the duty of tax collector and will collect all taxes, water rents and assessments according to law without fear, favor, or partiality.

1908, ch. 469 (p. 321).

238. In any and all cases where any street, lane or alley, or any part thereof, in the town of Frostburg, has been graded, paved or curbed or re-graded, repaved or recurbed under any ordinance, whether defective or not, which provided for assessing the whole or any portion of the cost of such improvement upon the property binding on such street, lane or alley, or part thereof, and upon the property line, track or franchise right of any street car company located and having its tracks upon said street, lane or alley, so improved, and such assessments, or any part thereof, remain unpaid, it shall be lawful for the Mayor and Councilmen of the town of Frostburg to provide by ordinance for the appointment of commissioners, to assess the value of such improvements and for the levy and collection, in such manner as they may deem proper, of a tax upon all the property binding on any street, lane or alley, or part thereof and upon the property line, track or franchise right of any street car company located and having its tracks upon said street, lane or alley, or part thereof, which may have been so improved, to the extent that such property shall have been specially benefited by such improvement; provided, that no property upon which the assessment originally made for its share of the cost of such improvement shall have been paid, shall be again assessed, and that reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard shall be given to all persons interested be-
