

1929, ch. 370, sec. 10F.

10F. Every attorney who shall, after a hearing held as hereinbefore prescribed, be found guilty of professional misconduct, malpractice, fraud, deceit, crime involving moral turpitude or conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice, shall have the right of appeal to the Court of Appeals of Maryland, as in civil cases, except the Court of Appeals shall have the right to review the entire proceedings and affirm, modify, alter or reverse the order from which said appeal is taken as the substantial merits of the cause and the ends of justice may require.

1929, ch. 370, sec. 10G.

10G. That upon the order of the judges disbaring such accused attorney from the practice of his profession in this State and no appeal being entered therefrom within the time prescribed for appeals to be taken in civil cases, the Clerk of the Court which has conducted such disbarment proceedings shall send over the seal of said Court, a certified copy of such order with the docket entries in the proceeding to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and upon receipt thereof the said Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland shall forthwith strike the name of the accused attorney from the register of attorneys in said court and certify that fact to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for each county throughout the State and to the Clerk of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and upon receipt of such certification each of said Clerks shall forthwith strike the name of such accused attorney from the register of attorneys in his Court.

1929, ch. 370, sec. 10H.

10H. That if an appeal be taken from the order of the judges disbaring such accused attorney from the practice of his profession in this State and said order be affirmed by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland shall forthwith strike the name of the accused attorney from the register of attorneys in said court and certify that fact to the Clerks of the Circuit Courts for each county throughout the State and to the Clerk of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and upon receipt of such certification, each of said Clerks shall forthwith strike the name of such accused attorney from the register of attorneys in his court.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 11. 1912, sec. 10. 1904, sec. 10. 1900, ch. 309, sec. 11A.
1929, ch. 370, sec. 11.

11. No attorney, during the time of his suspension or disbarment, shall practice law in this State in any form either as principal or agent, clerk or employee of another and specifically, without limiting the foregoing, no such attorney during his suspension or disbarment from practice of law shall appear as attorney or counsellor at law before any court, judge, justice, board, commission or public officer, or prepare any will, mortgage or deed.
