

Motor Vehicles shall have given meritorious service as such employee for a period of ten continuous years, and shall have reached the age of 55 years, such employee shall be forthwith retired by the superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police; but the superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police may in his discretion delay such retirement for such time as he may deem necessary; and in all retirements under the provisions of this section the employee in question shall be paid during the remainder of his natural life a salary or pension, payable monthly, equal to two per cent. (2%) of his annual salary multiplied by the number of years said applicant has been an employee of the Department of Maryland State Police and/or of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, said annual salary to be taken as of the year immediately preceding the granting of his application for retirement (provided, however, that such payment shall not exceed the rate of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per year to any one person). No money payable under this sub-title shall, prior to issuance and delivery of the warrant or voucher therefor, be capable of being assigned, charged or taken in execution or attachment. All employees subject to the provisions of this sub-title shall contribute to the Pension Fund, hereinafter provided for, a sum to be determined by the superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police but not to exceed two (2) per cent. of their annual salary, said sum to be approximately equal to one-half of the annual cost of this pension system to the individual employee so contributing. The amount of the contribution of each of the employees subject to the provisions of this sub-title shall be fixed annually in advance by the superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police and shall be deducted monthly from the salary checks of the said employees and paid in lieu thereof to the superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police to be placed by him forthwith in the said Pension Fund.

1935, ch. 303, sec. 31.

32. The superintendent of the Department of Maryland State Police shall have the power to revoke such retirement at any time and for any action which he may deem sufficient subject to the approval of the Governor.

1935, ch. 303, sec. 32.

33. All employees eligible for retirement under the provisions of this sub-title shall be subject to a medical examination by the regular physician of the Department of Maryland State Police or by any other physician the superintendent of said Department may select; and all such employees so eligible shall furnish such other evidence affecting their application for retirement as the superintendent of State Police may require.

1935, ch. 596, sec. 33.

34. The administration of the retirement and pension system, established by this sub-title, is hereby vested in the superintendent of State
