

1927, ch. 568, sec. 34. 1933, ch. 130, sec. 35.

35. It shall be unlawful to hold field trials with dogs in this State during any closed hunting season, unless permission to do so is granted by the Game Warden, and any Club or association holding a field trial during any closed hunting season, shall not be allowed to shoot, or shoot at any game of any species, which are protected by law.

Any person or persons owning any raccoon or opossum, bird or rabbit dog or dogs, who desires to train said dog or dogs during any closed hunting season for the purpose of entering said dog or dogs in any field trial must secure a permit by applying to the Game Warden to train said dog or dogs during any closed hunting season.

36. Dogs brought into this State to participate in such field trials and which are to be removed from the State within fifteen days after said field trials are held, shall be exempted from the payment of State, City or County license tax.

1927, ch. 568, sec. 36.

37. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of Section 35 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of the County or City where the offense was committed, shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and costs for each and every offense. Any person who fails to pay the fine so imposed shall stand committed to jail until the fine and costs shall have been paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed sixty days for any one offense.
