

State for violating any provisions of this sub-title, shall be fined not less than Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each and every offense, and in addition to said fine so imposed shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each and every such skin had in possession in violation of this sub-title. All such skins, pelts or meats or illegal devices found in possession in violation of this sub-title shall be confiscated by the officers making the arrest and turned over to the Game Warden who may dispose of same as he may deem advisable to the best interest of this State.

Any person who shall fail to pay the fine so imposed, shall stand committed to jail until the fine and costs shall have been paid; however, said sentence shall not exceed one day for each dollar so imposed. Any person other than the State Game Warden, Deputy Game Warden, or officer receiving compensation from the Conservation Department of Maryland who shall procure the conviction of any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall receive one-half of the fine recovered, the remaining one-half shall be paid to the State Game Warden or to the State Comptroller to be placed to the credit of the State Game Protection Fund to be used as provided by law.

If any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this sub-title shall for any reason be adjudged by a Court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional and invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or section thereof, so found unconstitutional and invalid.¹

As to abolition of informer's fees, see art. 38, sec. A.

Raising Game in Captivity.

1927, ch. 568, sec. 63. 1929, ch. 416, sec. 63.

60. Any person desiring to raise and sell game birds, or game animals of any species, on land or water of which he is the bona fide owner or lessee, may make application in writing to the Game Warden of this State for a license so to do. The Game Warden, upon receipt of a license fee of Five ($5) Dollars may issue to the applicant a Breeder's License permitting such applicant to breed and protect the game raised on the land or water owned or leased by said licensee. Said license shall expire on the thirty-first day of December after date of issuance. No license shall be issued to any person owning or leasing land or water which is not enclosed with a fence, said fence must be of such character as to prohibit egress and ingress or² water satisfactory to the Game Warden. If the land is an entire island or if it is partially surrounded by water and enclosed with a fence where it adjoins other land, the same shall be acceptable under the terms of this section.
