

1935, ch. 316, sec. 15-I.

15-I. Any moneys or fees coming into the hands of the said Commission may be used for the necessary expenses of the Commission essential to the carrying out of this Article but no overdraft shall be created by reason of any such expenditures.¹

1929, ch. 318, sec. 15.

16. (Power to Regulate.) The Commission shall administer the provisions of this sub-title, and for such purpose is authorized to make such regulations as are necessary to execute the functions vested in it by this subtitle, including air traffic rules, which regulations, to carry out the provisions and intent of this sub-title, shall conform to and coincide with, so far as possible, the provisions of the Air Commerce Act of 1926, and amendments thereto, passed by the Congress of the United States and Air Commerce Regulations and air traffic rules issued from time to time pursuant thereto.

1929, ch. 318, sec. 16.

17. (Aircraft License Required.) No civil aircraft shall be flown or operated in this State unless such aircraft either is licensed as provided by Section 19 of this sub-title or shall have an appropriate existing license under Federal law.

1929, ch. 318, sec. 17.

18. (Airman License Required.) No person shall act as an airman of any civil aircraft when such aircraft is flown or operated in this State unless he shall have either a license as provided in Section 20 of this sub-title, or an appropriate existing license under Federal law.

1929, ch. 318, sec. 18.

19. (Licensing of Aircraft.) The Commission shall provide for the issuance and expiration, and for the suspension and revocation of licenses of civil aircraft, in accordance with regulations promulgated by it, which regulations, to carry out the provisions and intent of this sub-title, shall conform to and coincide with, so far as possible, the provisions of the Air Commerce Act of 1926, and amendments thereto, passed by the Congress of the United States, and Air Commerce Regulations issued from time to time pursuant thereto.

1929, ch. 318, sec. 19.

20. (Licensing of Airmen.) The Commission shall provide for the issuance and expiration, and for the suspension and revocation of licenses

¹ Sec. 1 of ch. 316, acts of 1935, reads as follows: "If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or the application thereof to any person, firm, corporation or circumstance, is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the act and the application of such provision to other persons, firms, corporations or circumstances shall not be affected thereby." Sec. 2 of said act repealed all laws inconsistent therewith to extent of such inconsistency.
