

1927, ch. 472, sec. 171C.

171C. It shall be unlawful for any person, co-partnership or corporation to recharge, except in cases of emergency or with the consent of the owner thereof, or his or its duly authorized agent, servant or employee, any electric storage battery owned by any other person, co-partnership or corporation upon or to which the word "rental" or any word, mark, device or character is printed, painted, stamped or otherwise placed or attached for the purpose of identifying the ownership thereof as belonging to or being the property of the person, co-partnership or corporation owning the same.

1927, ch. 472, sec. 171D.

171D. It shall be unlawful for any person, co-partnership or corporation other than the owner thereof to retain in his, their or its possession, for a longer period than thirty days after demand by registered mail by the owner thereof, any electric storage battery upon or to which the word "rental" or any word, mark, device or character is printed, painted, stamped, burned or otherwise placed or attached, for the purpose of identifying the ownership thereof as belonging to or being the property of the person, co-partnership or corporation owning the same.

1927, ch. 472, sec. 171E.

171E. Any person, co-partnership or corporation and the members, officers, agents and employees of any co-partnership or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance¹ shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars.

Fraud—False Insignia.

1935, ch. 361.

174A. Any person who shall wilfully wear the insignia, uniform or button of The American Legion, or the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, or the Disabled American Veterans of the World War or the United Spanish War Veterans, or the official decorations of said organizations, or use the same to obtain aid or assistance within this State, unless he or she shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the constitution and by-laws, rules and regulations of such organizations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, and in default of payment committed to jail for a period not to exceed thirty days.

1933, ch. 343, sec. 1.

174B. Any association, lodge, order, fraternal society, beneficial association, or fraternal and beneficial society or association, historical, military, or veterans' organization, labor union, foundation, federation, or any

¹ Evidently "act" or "sub-title" intended.