

covenants and agreements and to perform its and their duties under this sub-title.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 30, sec. 11.

19. The powers conferred by this sub-title shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and bonds, interim certificates or other obligations may be issued hereunder for any project notwithstanding that any other law may provide for the issuance of bonds, interim certificates or other obligations for like purpose and without regard to the requirements, restrictions or other provisions contained in any other law. Bonds may be issued under this sub-title notwithstanding any debt or other limitation prescribed by any other law, and the mode and method of procedure for issuance of bonds under this sub-title need not conform to the provisions of any other law. Any proceedings heretofore taken under any other law by any municipality relating to the subject matter of this sub-title may be continued under such other law or under this sub-title, or at the option of the governing body may be discontinued and new proceedings instituted under this sub-title. Except in pursuance of any contract or agreement theretofore entered into by and between any municipality and any Federal agency, no municipality shall borrow any money or issue any bonds pursuant to the provisions of this sub-title after ~~January 1, 1936~~. It is the purpose of this sub-title to enable municipalities to secure the benefits of the National Industrial Recovery Act, to encourage public works, to reduce unemployment and thereby to assist in the national recovery and promote the public welfare, and to these ends municipalities shall have power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out said purpose in addition to the express powers conferred in this sub-title; this sub-title is remedial in nature and the powers hereby granted shall be liberally construed.

1933 (Special Sess.). ch. 30. sec. 11A. 1935, ch. 40.

20. None of the provisions of this sub-title shall apply to Somerset, Garrett, Caroline, Carroll and Frederick Counties, and that the County Commissioners of said Counties and municipal corporations located therein shall have none of the powers provided for in this sub-title, except that in the town of Crisfield, Somerset County, the corporation officials shall have the power to borrow under the provisions of this sub-title any sum not in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.00). None of the provisions of this sub-title shall apply to any incorporated town in Talbot County and said incorporated towns located therein shall have none of the powers provided for in this sub-title.

1933 (Special Sess.). ch. 30, sec. 12.

21. If any one or more sections, clauses, sentences, or parts of this sub-title shall for any reason be questioned in any court, and shall be adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remaining provisions thereof but shall be con-
