

1933, ch. 564, sec. 10.

10. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or be confined not more than six months in jail, in the discretion of the Judge or Judges of the Circuit Court of the respective counties of this State, or the Judge or Judges of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, before whom the matter shall be tried; and upon conviction of a subsequent offense, shall be confined not more than six months in jail, or fined not less than three hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars. Any violation of this Article by a person convicted under the then existing laws of this State of practicing dentistry without a license or registration shall be included in the term subsequent offense. Every conviction of unlawful practice subsequent to a first conviction thereof shall be a conviction of a subsequent offense.

1933, ch. 564, sec. 11.

11. Nothing in this Article, or in any other provision of this Code, shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights and privileges of physicians and surgeons duly licensed to practice their profession in this State, nor of persons holding certificates duly issued to them by the State Board of Dental Examiners of Maryland prior to the passage of this Act or of dental students operating under the immediate supervision of their instructors in dental infirmaries or dental schools duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland.

1933, ch. 564, sec. 12.

12. All persons now authorized to practice dentistry in this State, and those who may be hereafter registered under the provisions of this Article, shall be exempt from service as jurors in any of the Courts of this State during the continuance of the practice of their profession.

1933, ch. 564, sec. 13.

13. Nothing contained in this Article shall prevent, or be construed as in any way to hinder the prosecution, conviction or punishment of any person who may have offended against any of the provisions of Chapter 481 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at its January Session, 1920, or against any of the provisions of Article 32 of the Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Dentistry," or against any of the provisions of any of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of which the same is a codification.
