This section referred to in construing sec. 217. Fitzgerald v. Quinn, 159 Md. 545. See notes to sec. 141.

An. Code, 1924. sec. 202. 1912. sec. 187. 1910, ch. 741, sec. 160J (p. 123). 1931, ch. 508.

202. For the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this sub-title, the supervisors of elections of the several counties, in addition to the annual salary of one hundred dollars each allowed them by Section 3 of Article 33, shall be entitled to receive an additional compensation, to be paid by the county commissioners of the several counties, amounting to twenty-five per cent. of the salary now received by them under said section in the counties, and such further sum for expenses incurred in the performance of the duties imposed on them by this sub-title as the several boards of county commissioners shall allow. The supervisors of elections of Baltimore City, in addition to the sum allowed to them by Section 7 of Article 33, as compensation for their clerk and messenger and other temporary assistance, such as is mentioned in said Section 7 of said Article 33, shall be allowed the further sum of fifteen hundred dollars; and the supervisors of elections of the several counties shall be entitled to receive for such additional clerical or other assistance as they may need for the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this sub-title, a sum not exceeding twenty-five per cent. of the present salary for that purpose in the counties. All of said expenses shall be paid by the mayor and city council of Baltimore and the county commissioners, respectively, in precisely the same way as the salaries of the said supervisors of elections of Baltimore City and in the several counties, and as other expenses of every kind mentioned in said Sections 3 and 7 of said Article 33 are provided to be paid; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply to Howard County.
