

Public Statutes and Office Copies and Official Certificates.56.

Statute of Delaware was proved by reading it in evidence from printed Revised Code of that state. Victory Sparkler Co. v. Gilbert, 160 Md. 184.

1927, ch. 584, sec. 56A.

56A. Publications Covered by this Sub-title. Printed books or pamphlets purporting on their face to be the session or other statutes of any of the United States, or the territories thereof, or of any foreign jurisdiction, and to have been printed and published by the authority of any such state, territory or foreign jurisdiction or proved to be commonly recognized in its courts, shall be received in the courts of this state as prima facie evidence of such statutes.

See notes to sec. 56.

1927, ch. 584, sec. 56B.

56B. Uniformity of Interpretation. This sub-title comprising Sections 56A, 56B and 56C shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purposes to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

1927, ch. 584, sec. 56C.

56C. Short Title. This sub-title comprising Sections 56A, 56B and 56C may be cited as the Uniform Proof of Statutes Act.

1933, ch. 317.

68A. A copy of any books, papers, entries, records or proceedings pertaining to the office of the State Roads Commission, when certified to by the Secretary of the State Roads Commission, shall be received as evidence in any court of law or equity, or before any judge, justice of the peace, or other tribunal in this State, in the same manner and to have the same effect as if the original books, papers, entries, records or proceedings were themselves produced.

Presumptions of Survivorship.71.

This section applies only when there is no evidence as to who died first, and no particular circumstances from which survivorship could be inferred. Sporrer v. Ady, 150 Md. 62.
