

and July in each and every year. It shall also be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell or offer to sell, purchase or offer to purchase or to have in possession any black bass during said months, whether said fish be caught in tidal or non-tidal waters within the State of Maryland, or the waters of any other State and brought into this State; provided, however, that anglers catching said fish during the month of July in non-tidal waters of the State, under the provisions of Section 81<sup>1</sup> of Article 39 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, shall be entitled to the possession of said fish so caught.

68. It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver to any private or common carrier for transportation, or for any private or common carrier to accept for transportation, or for any person to transport or carry or cause to be transported or carried by any means whatsoever, any black bass into or from the State of Maryland, during the months of April, May, June and July in each and every year.

69. During the open season, it shall be unlawful for any person to catch, take or kill in any manner, or have in possession any black bass less than ten (10) inches in length. It shall be unlawful, during the open season, for any person to catch by means of rod, hook and line, more than twenty (20) black bass in any one day.

70. Any person convicted before any Justice of the Peace of this State for violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $200.00 and costs for each and every offense in addition to the forfeitures provided for elsewhere in Article 39. The fines and forfeitures recovered for violation of this sub-title shall be paid over to the State Comptroller and credited to the Conservation Fund.

70A. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this sub-title shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional and invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or section thereof so found unconstitutional and invalid.<sup>2</sup>
