Department of Legislative Reference.

An. Code, 1924, art. 41, sec. 67. 1924, ch. 377. 1935, ch. 150.

67. It shall be the duty of every officer, board, institution and commission of the State, including special or temporary officers, boards and commissions, to file with the Department of Legislative Reference two copies of every regular or special report issued by him or it, whether such report be in printed or other form. Every officer, board, institution and commission of the State is hereby directed to transmit to said Department of Legislative Reference such number of copies of all reports and publications issued by him or it as the Director of said Department shall request, but not to exceed one hundred copies. It shall be the duty of the Director of the Department of Legislative Reference to use the copies of the reports and publications above directed to be delivered to him for exchange with or distribution to other departments, libraries, historical societies or research agencies, and at least one copy of each of such reports and publications shall be sent by the said Director to the Library of Congress, the Maryland State Library, the Johns Hopkins University Library, Enoch Pratt Free Library, Peabody Institute of Baltimore, Maryland Historical Society and the University of Maryland Library.

Commissioners for Uniform State Laws.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 69. 1912, sec. 24. 1904, sec. 24. 1896, ch. 264. 1900, ch. 194. 1908, ch. 407. 1912, ch. 593. 1916, ch. 543. 1920, ch. 287. 1924, ch. 278. 1927, chs. 484 and 609. 1931, ch. 306. 1935, ch. 502.

69. Within thirty days after June 1, 1935, and every fourth year hereafter, on or before the first day of June of said year, the Governor shall appoint three commissioners who are hereby constituted a board of commissioners by the name and style of "Commissioners for the Promotion of Uniformity of Legislation in the United States," and who shall represent Maryland in the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. It shall be the duty of said board to examine into and ascertain the best means to effect uniformity in the laws of the various States and especially to meet with representatives appointed by the other States in a convention now popularly called "The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws," to draft uniform laws to be submitted for the approval and adoption of the several States and to recommend such action as shall best accomplish the promotion of such uniformity in legislation.

Such commissioners shall hold office for a term of four years or until their successors have been duly appointed. No member of said board shall
