

1935, ch. 377, sec. 282D.

282S. The said Board shall meet at least once in each month in the City of Baltimore, and shall hold special meetings as frequently as the proper and efficient discharge of its business shall require, and said Board shall adopt such rules and regulations for the examinations of paper-hangers as herein defined, and for the carrying on of the business of paper-hanging in such manner as to protect and promote the public health, safety and general welfare, and when so adopted, such rules and regulations shall have the same force and effect as if herein contained, and the rules of said Board shall also provide for the giving of timely notice of such meetings to all persons who shall have made application for a license as herein provided.

1935, ch. 377, sec. 282E.

282T. The said Board is hereby authorized, directed and required to classify the business of paper-hanging into two classes, to be known as Classes A and B, and to issue a separate license for each class, upon application, examination and the payment of the fees as hereinafter provided. The holders of a Class A license shall be authorized to accept orders or contracts for paper-hanging, and to perform all such work as may be necessary for the fulfilling of such orders or contracts through the employment of holders of a Class B license, or individually, where the holder of a Class A license also holds a Class B license. The holders of a Class B license shall be authorized to hang or lay wall paper, or other similar wall coverings, prepare walls, ceiling, or other portions of buildings, and generally, to do and perform all things necessary to be done in the proper discharge of the duties of a paper-hanger.

1935, ch. 377, sec. 282F.

282U. Every person, co-partnership or corporation engaged in the business of paper-hanging in Baltimore City, on June 1st, 1935, shall be entitled to a license without examination, upon the filing of an application for such license with the State Board of Paper-Hangers and Supervisors of Baltimore City, on or before August 1, 1935, and the payment of the license fees hereinafter provided. If such application shall be made by a co-partnership, it shall state the names and addresses of the person composing such co-partnership, and if made by a corporation, it shall state the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation. Class A licenses shall be issued upon the payment of a fee of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars and Class B licenses shall be issued upon the payment of a fee of Five ($5.00) Dollars. The said license fees to be payable to the Treasurer of the Board, and to accompany the application in each case. All licenses issued by the Board shall expire on the first day of May next succeeding the issuance of same, and Class A licenses may be renewed annually, upon the payment of a fee of Ten ($10.00) Dollars. Class B licenses may be renewed annually, upon the payment of a fee of Two ($2.00) Dollars, provided that no person shall be entitled to a
