

renewal license unless his application, therefor, accompanied by the required fee, is delivered to the State Board of Examiners and Supervisors of Paper-Hangers, on or before the first day of May in each and every year, and provided further, that it shall be the duty of the said Board to give written notice by mail, to every license holder at his, her or its address as shown upon the license records of the Board, on or before the 15th day of April in each and every year, of his, her or its right of renewal as provided by this sub-title. The Board of Examiners and Supervisors of Paper-Hangers of Baltimore City shall have power to revoke or suspend any license or renewal thereof, granted under the provisions of the sub-title for any violation of the provisions of this sub-title, or for any other cause which the Board may deem sufficient.

282V. Before any person, co-partnership, or corporation shall engage in the business of paper-hanging in Baltimore City after August 1, 1935, and before any person, co-partnership or corporation now engaged in said business in said City, who shall fail to obtain a license or renew the same in the manner provided by the preceding section of this sub-title, shall continue to carry on said business of paper-hanging in Baltimore City, after August 1, 1935, such person, co-partnership, or corporation shall apply to said State Board of Examiners and Supervisors of Paperhangers in Baltimore City, for a license to carry on the business of paper-hanging, and all such individuals, members of co-partnerships and officers of employees of corporations whose duties shall engage him or her in the performance of the work usually and customarily performed by a paper-hanger, shall present himself, or herself before said Board at a time and place to be fixed by said Board for examination as to his or her qualifications to follow the occupation of a paper-hanger. Every such application shall be accomplished¹ by the payment of a fee of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars in cases where the application is for a Class A license, and a fee of Five ($5.00) Dollars in cases where the application is for a Class B license, and if said Board shall, upon due examination and the payment of the fee above provided, find that the person examined is qualified as a paper-hanger, then such applicant shall be entitled to a license of the Class applied for without the payment of any additional fee, which said license shall expire on the first day of May next succeeding, and be subject to renewal as hereinabove provided. A Class A license may be issued without examination, but no holder of such a license shall be permitted to actually perform the work of a paper-hanger unless he also holds a Class B license, but the holder of a Class A license may carry on his business through the employment of one or more holders of Class B license, or individually, if he holds a Class A license, but not otherwise.
