

Public General Laws, and not more than two assistants to be appointed by the Comptroller, subject only to the approval of the Governor, and the said Bureau, after due notice to the applicant and to one or more of the objectors or their attorney, at the address disclosed upon the protest, shall proceed to hear and determine the said objections and shall notify the Clerk of the Court of the Bureau's findings thereon. If the Bureau determines that the granting of the license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public, or that the applicant is not a fit person to receive such license, or has made a material false statement in his application, or has practiced fraud in the application, or that the operation of the business if the license is granted, will unduly disturb the peace of the residents of the neighborhood in which the place of business is to be located, or that there are other reasons in the discretion of the board why the license should not be issued, then the application shall be disapproved, and no such license shall be issued. If no such findings are made by the Bureau, then the application shall be approved and the Clerk shall forthwith issue the license applied for upon receipt of notice or a certificate of approval from the Bureau, and upon payment of the fee required. The findings of the Bureau in connection with all such applications shall be final. If no written objections as aforesaid are filed with the Clerk of the Court before the expiration of the time specified in the publication of notice, the Clerk shall forthwith issue the license applied for, upon payment of the fee required; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply to Howard County, and the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said County shall issue the licenses provided for by this Article upon the filing of the duly executed application provided for in Section 5 of this Article and upon the payment of the required license fee. This Section shall not apply to St. Mary's County.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 8.

8. Expenses of Publication and Notice of Application. All expenses in connection with the publication of the notice of the application and the giving of notice to the applicant and the protestants, shall be borne by the applicant, and the applicant shall deposit, in advance, with the Board of License Commissioners or the Clerk of the Court, as the case may be, a sufficient sum to cover such publication and the giving of such notice.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 9.

9. Temporary Licenses in Baltimore City and Counties Having a Board of License Commissioners. Pending final action upon any application for any license expiring on April 30th, 1934, which has been filed with the Board of License Commissioners for Baltimore City or any County, as above provided, the Board may, in its discretion, and without any notice or advertisement, approve the issue of a temporary license of the same Class as applied for to any such applicant by the Clerk of the Court of the County or City, as the case may be, and the production of a certificate signed by the members of the Board shall be sufficient authority to the Clerk for the issuance of any such license upon the payment of the
