

1935, ch. 406, sec. 402.

442. No person, association, copartnership, or corporation purchasing or selling milk or cream or both by weight or measure or butterfat test, and no agent or servant, of any such person, association, copartnership, or corporation shall use as a basis of payment for such purchase any weight or measure or butterfat test other than the correct weight or measure or butterfat test of the milk or cream purchased or sold.

1935, ch. 406, sec. 403.

443. Every person, association, copartnership, corporation or agent or servant purchasing or receiving milk or cream from the producer thereof for manufacturing purposes or for reselling the same shall, at each time of payment to such producer for such milk or cream, or where the producer of such milk or cream is selling the same to such purchaser or receiver by or through co-operative association or other agency and the payment thereof is being made by such purchaser or receiver, makes each payment to such co-operative association or other agency, give such producer so delivering milk a statement showing the amount delivered daily during the time for which payment is made and the average per centum butterfat test of same, provided payment is made on the basis of butterfat content, such statement to contain the name or number of the producer or seller of such milk or cream, the date of delivery thereof, and the amount so delivered; such statement to be given in the terms of the unit used as a basis for determining the value thereof. Provided, however, that such purchaser or receiver may in lieu of said monthly statement of weights give daily to such producer or to his agent at the time of delivery of such milk or cream to such purchaser or receiver a written statement of the amount of milk or cream so received or purchased.

1935, ch. 406, sec. 404.

444. The University of Maryland College of Agriculture (and) its agents are hereby authorized to enter the premises and to examine the books, the records, and testing apparatus of any person, association, copartnership, or corporation, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this sub-title.

1935, ch. 406, sec. 405.

445. The University of Maryland College of Agriculture or its agents shall be charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this sub-title and shall have authority to make such rules and regulations as are necessary for the proper enforcement of the law.

1935, ch. 406, sec. 406.

446. For violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title proceedings may be instituted against the owner or manager who is responsible for the business transacted, together with the certified tester or the person weighing and sampling, either or all, to be held equally responsible.
