

1935, ch. 470, sec. 56D.

56D. The written order of the Insurance Commissioner for the correction of any condition found to be hazardous to safety as provided by this sub-title, when directed to the occupant of such premises, shall be served by delivering a true copy thereof to such occupant or to any adult person apparently in charge of said premises, within five days from the date of issuance of such order; or, in case no such person is found upon the premises, then by posting a true copy thereof within five days from the date of issuance of said order in a conspicuous place on the door or other prominent entrance to said premises and by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to said occupant at his last known post office address; and if no such address be known, then by registered mail to said occupant in case of general delivery at the post office serving the community in which said premises lie. When directed to the owner of such premises, such order shall be served by delivering a true copy thereof to such owner, or, if the owner is absent from the State or his whereabouts be unknown to the Commissioner, by mailing a true copy thereof by registered mail to the said owner's last known post office address, or if no such address be known, then by registered mail to said owner in care of general delivery at the post office serving the community in which said premises lie; the said delivery or mailing of such order to be accomplished within five days from the date of the issuance of such order. And in the event it is necessary to mail a copy of such order as aforesaid, the officer mailing the same shall also, within five days from the date of issuance of such order, post a true copy thereof upon said premises in the manner above provided for notice to occupants.

Provided, that every such order and copy thereof shall contain a notice that compliance therewith shall be required within a period of thirty days from the date of issuance thereof, and also that any person desiring to contest the validity of any such order may enter an appeal from said order to a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county where said premises are located, praying a review of such order, said appeal to be filed before the expiration of said thirty-day period.

56E. Any party feeling himself aggrieved by any such order shall have the right, before the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of any such order, to file an appeal from said order to a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county where said premises are located, naming the Insurance Commissioner as defendant, and the entry of any such appeal shall operate as a stay of said order. It shall be the duty of the Court to which such appeal is taken, to forthwith hear and determine the same, and to affirm or reverse the order from which said appeal is taken, and such decision shall be final and not subject to further appeal.
