1927, ch. 400, sec. 61.

61. Application for Agent's and Solicitor's Licenses. Before any license or permit shall be issued to any insurance agent or solicitor for any insurance company in this State, the company desiring to appoint said agent or solicitor shall make application to the Commissioner for a license or permit on forms to be prescribed and prepared by the Insurance Commissioner and said company shall pay the license or registration fees prescribed by this Article. Before any license or permit is issued to such agent or solicitor, the Commissioner may refuse to issue any such license if convinced that the applicant therefor has wilfully misrepresented any policy of insurance, or has dealt unjustly with or wilfully deceived any citizen of this State in regard to any insurance policy, or that his license or authority to act for any Insurance Company has been refused or revoked in this or any other state for violation of law; or has misrepresented the terms or conditions of any insurance policy or contract or has misappropriated or withheld from any Insurance Company, general agent, agent or broker any money or property received or collected by him for any company, general agent, agent or broker under any former or existing employment as agent, broker or solicitor, or has wilfully violated any of the insurance laws of this state or any ruling of the Commissioner which he is by law authorized to make; provided, that any person deeming himself aggrieved by any such refusal by the Commissioner to grant any such license as aforesaid, shall have the right to appeal to the Superior Court of Baltimore City for a writ of mandamus to compel the issuance of such license in any proper case where the same has been wrongfully and improperly withheld.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 62. 1922, ch. 492, sec. 61. 1935, ch. 152.

62. Revocation of License of Agent or Broker. Whenever the Commissioner shall be satisfied that any insurance broker, broker's solicitor, agent or solicitor, licensed or registered by this State, has wilfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State, or has wilfully misrepresented any policies of insurance, or has dealt unjustly with or wilfully deceived any citizen of this State in regard to any insurance policy, or has failed or refused to pay over to the company or to his principal or other person whom he represents or has represented, or by or for whom he is employed or acts, any money or property in the hands of said agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor belonging to said company, firm, broker, principal or person when demanded to do so, or has violated any ruling of the insurance department which he is by law authorized to make, or upon conviction of any infamous crime under the laws of this State, or has been guilty of twisting or attempting to twist by misrepresentation any policy of insurance or has made any false statement, answer or declaration in his application for license, then and in any such case, the Commissioner may, and it shall be his duty to suspend or revoke the license of such broker or broker's solicitor, or suspend or revoke
