An. Code, 1924, sec. 49. 1912, sec. 47. 1904, sec. 45. 1888, sec. 43. 1849, ch. 269, sec. 2. 1929, ch. 404.

49. The plaintiff in an attachment, before execution on any judgment of condemnation shall be issued, shall give bond to the defendant in such penalty as the justice of the peace shall direct, not less than double the amount of the judgment of condemnation, with good and sufficient security to be approved by the said justice and conditioned to make restitution of the property so condemned, or the value thereof, and to pay such damages as may be awarded to the defendant, if the defendant shall at any time within six months and a day from the date of issuing the attachment appear, either in person or by his agent, before the justice issuing such attachment, or before some other justice of the same county, and make it appear that the plaintiff has satisfied the said debt, or show that it ought not to be paid, or that the said defendant was not indebted to the plaintiff at the time of issuing said attachment.

Magistrates for Juvenile Causes

1931, ch. 323, sec. 81.

81. In addition to the Justices of the Peace already authorized by law, there shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and if the Senate shall not be in session by the Governor, from each county in the State of Maryland, an additional justice of the peace for each county to be known as the magistrate for juvenile causes for the particular county in which he is appointed, who shall be at least twenty-five years of age, a member of the bar of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and shall receive such salary, payable by the County Commissioners of the county for which he is appointed, as such County Commissioners shall determine, provided, however, that no such appointment shall be made in any county until the County Commissioners shall have provided a salary for such Justice, and shall have notified the Governor that such provision has been made until the appointment of a Magistrate for Juvenile Causes for any county as herein provided, the Courts and Justices of the Peace of the several counties shall continue to exercise jurisdiction in juvenile causes as authorized by law prior to the passage of this sub-title. When such Justices are appointed, each shall have the following jurisdiction and powers: (1) He shall possess the same powers as a justice of the peace or magistrate for criminal causes and have criminal jurisdiction as the same is now or may hereafter be defined by law. (2) He shall have exclusive jurisdiction where jurisdiction is given by law to any justice of the peace or magistrate for criminal causes in all cases of trial, or commitment for trial, or commitment to any juvenile institution of any minor under the age of sixteen (16) years. (3) He shall sit at such times as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties, at such proper places as may be provided by the
