1931, ch. 498, sec. 187J.

187J. If an owner's certificate of registration has been suspended under the provisions of this sub-title, such certificate shall not be transferred nor the motor vehicle in respect of which such certificate was issued, registered in another name, where the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that such transfer or registration is proposed for the purpose or will have the effect of defeating the purpose of this sub-title. Provided, however, that such transfer of registration shall be permitted upon the furnishing of proof of financial responsibility to the Commissioner by such transferee whenever the Commissioner shall deem it necessary in furtherance of the purposes of this section. Nothing in this sub-title contained shall have the effect of preventing a transfer of the certificate of title of the motor vehicle of such owner.
