

for themselves and charging no fee therefor nor to charitable agencies maintaining employment offices.

1935, ch. 296, sec. 232B.

232B. All licenses to engage in business as an employment agent in this State shall be annual licenses, except as hereinafter in this section provided, and shall be granted by the Commissioner of State Employment and Registration. No person shall engage in business as an employment agent in this State until (1) he shall pay to the said Commissioner a license fee of $25.00 for a full year or pro rata for less than a full year, provided, however, that the fee shall not be less than $10.00, (2) and shall also deposit with the said Commissioner a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 signed by the applicant for the license as principal and by a Surety Company authorized to do business in this State as surety, payable to the State of Maryland as obligee and conditioned on the compliance of such applicant with the provisions of Sections 232 and 232-I, inclusive, and the payment by such applicant of all damages occasioned to any person by reason of any misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud or deceit forbidden by said sections of such applicant or his agents or employees. All licenses granted by the said Commissioner shall, irrespective of the date of issue, expire on the first day of May next thereafter. No license shall be issued by the said Commissioner unless the applicant for such license shall have an office within the State at which such applicant carries on, or proposes to carry on, business as an employment agent. The said Commissioner is hereby authorized to refuse to issue a license to any applicant whose license has been suspended or revoked as hereinafter provided, unless and until it shall be shown to the satisfaction of said Commissioner that the applicant will not be guilty of the offense for which such prior license was suspended or revoked.

1935, ch. 296, sec. 232C.

232C. The Commissioner of State Employment and Registration is hereby authorized, at any time and from time to time, after a public hearing (notice of which shall be given as hereinafter in this section provided), to make and publish rules and regulations for the regulation of employment agents not inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 232 to 232-I, inclusive, of this Article, and in like manner to repeal or amend such regulations from time to time. The Commissioner shall give notice of any such public hearing at least ten days in advance thereof by mailing a notice thereof to all licensed employment agencies in the State and in addition by publishing such notice in two daily newspapers of general circulation published in Baltimore City. The said Commissioner is hereby authorized to revoke or to suspend for such period as he shall think proper the license of any employment agent violating any of the provisions of Sections 232A to 232-I, inclusive, or of any rule or regulation made and published pursuant to the provisions of this section.
