

The compensation of such part time inspectors, investigators, or field workers shall be determined by co-operative arrangement with the department head concerned, provided the total compensation of any such part time inspector shall not be greater than that allowed in the budget of the department in which such part time employee is regularly employed; and the compensation of any full time inspector shall be that provided for the Department of State Employment and Registration in the biennial budget Act. All salaries and other legitimate expenses shall be paid by the State Comptroller on proper requisition signed by the said Commissioner out of the license taxes provided by Section 232 and shall be paid only from such license taxes. The said Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to investigate, through the inspectors appointed by him pursuant to the provisions of this section, the manner in which all employment agents doing business within the State conduct such business, and to examine at any time during business hours any and all of the books and records of such employment agents, to the end that all such employment agents shall comply with the provisions of Sections 232 to 232-I, inclusive, and with the rules and regulations made and published by the said Commissioner.

1935, ch. 296, sec. 232H.

232H. The violation of any of the provisions of Sections 232 to 232-I, inclusive, or of any rule or regulation issued and published by the Commissioner of State Employment and Registration, shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25.00 for the first offense and not less than $100.00 for each subsequent offense. It shall be the duty of said Commissioner to institute proceedings through the State's Attorney of Baltimore City and the State's Attorneys of the respective counties for the prosecution of any employment agent violating any of the provisions of Sections 232 to 232-I, inclusive, or of any regulations made and published by him pursuant to the provisions of Section 232C.

1935, ch. 296, sec. 232-I.

232-I. The provisions of Sections 232 to 232-I, inclusive, are severable, and, in the event that any provision thereof should be declared unconstitutional, it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that the remaining portions would have been enacted notwithstanding such judicial determination of the invalidity of any particular provision or provisions in any respect.¹

Trading Stamp Companies.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 235. 1912. sec. 173. 1916, ch. 704, sec. 173. 1935, ch. 360.

235. Every person, firm, association and corporation of this State or carrying on business therein, who shall sell or deliver any stamps, cou-

¹ Sec. 3, ch. 296, acts of 1935, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith to extent of such inconsistency.