

The foregoing enumeration of powers of the Commission shall not derogate from or prejudice any other power expressly or impliedly granted to the Commission by any other provision of this Article.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 4.

4. (A) Whoever, being a milk dealer, as defined in this Article, engaged in business in any manner as such, except as provided in sub-section (a) of Section 3, without being licensed as provided in this Article, or wilfully makes any false statement in his application for a license, filed pursuant to this Article, or wilfully disobeys or fails to observe or comply with the provisions of this Article or any lawful rule or order of the Commission, prescribed under the provisions of this Article, or knowingly purchases milk from or sells milk to an unlicensed milk dealer or to a milk dealer whom he has reason to believe is operating in violation of this Article, or of any rule, order or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not to exceed six months, or both. Each day on which such milk dealer continues to violate the provisions of this Article or any lawful rule or order of the Commission shall be deemed a separate offense.

(B) Whoever, being a producer, as defined in this Article, supplies milk to a milk dealer doing business in this State, in a marketing area established by the Commission hereinafter provided in this Article without securing a permit or wilfully disobeys or fails to observe or comply with this Article or any lawful rule or order of the Commission prescribed under the provisions of this Article or knowingly sells milk to an unlicensed milk dealer or to a milk dealer whom he has reason to believe is operating in violation of this Article or of any rule, order or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, shall be subject to the revocation of his permit by the Commission.

5. Within 30 days after April 29, 1935, or within such extended time as the Commission by general rule may prescribe, or before commencing business:

Each milk dealer, as defined in this Article, except as provided in sub-section (a) of Section 3, shall apply to the Commission for a license to engage in business as a distributor, a producer-distributor, a distributing broker, or to conduct a retail store as defined in this Article, or in any one or more of said business.

(A) Such application shall be in writing, in such form as the Commission may prescribe and shall in every case include or be accompanied by the following:

(a) The full name of the applicant, if an individual, the names and addresses of all officers and directors, if a corporation, or cooperative milk association, or the full name of each member, if a firm.
