(a) That the producer has repeatedly violated any sanitary regulation or law;

(b) That the producer is or has been wilfully guilty of any violation of this Article or any rule or regulation with respect to the marketing of milk adopted and/or approved by the Commission pursuant to this Article, or has either directly or indirectly by any method or device, whether by a discount or rebate or free service or advertising allowance or a combined price for milk together with another commodity or commodities or service or services, or otherwise deviated or attempted to deviate from any prices established pursuant to the provisions of this Article.

7. Before declining to grant a license or permit or conditioning or limiting a license or permit, or suspending or revoking a license or permit previously granted, the Commission shall give notice to the applicant or licensee or permit holder personally or by registered mail, and afford to him an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect thereto at a time and place specified in such notice. Such applicant or licensee or permit holder shall have the right to be so heard in person or by attorney, and to offer evidence pertinent to the subject of the hearing, and to that and¹ to invoke the powers of the Commission with respect to the compulsory attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, records and documents. A duly certified copy of the order of the Commission upon such hearing shall be served on the applicant or licensee or permit holder in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (g) of section 3 of this Article.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 8.

8. Any applicant, licensee, permit holder or any interested person who shall have filed a complaint with the Commission or intervened in any complaints pending before the Commission, deeming himself aggrieved by any action of the Commission taken pursuant to section 6 of this Article, may within ten days after receipt of a copy of the order of the Commission file an appeal to the Circuit Court of Baltimore City or the Circuit Court for any county sitting as a Court of Equity, in which the business of the applicant or licensee or permit holder is or is to be conducted, which shall have jurisdiction to reverse, vacate or modify the order complained of if such court is of the opinion that such order was unlawful or unreasonable. In such appeal the Maryland Milk Control Commission shall be the defendant and such appeal shall set forth the grounds of said appeal. Upon the filing of said appeal with the Commission it shall forthwith transmit to the Clerk of such court a transcript of the records of the
