

1935, ch. 310, sec. 21.

21. Nothing in this Article shall be construed or applied as to prevent the sale of raw milk when otherwise complying with this Article.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 22.

22. The sections and parts of sections included in this Article are hereby declared to be independent sections and parts of sections; if any such section or part of section shall be held invalid such holding shall not affect the remainder of this Article, nor the context in which such part of section so held invalid may appear, excepting to the extent that an entire section or part of section may be inseparably connected in meaning and effect with the section or part of section to which such holding shall directly apply. The intention and purpose of this Article as hereinbefore defined extends to the regulation of the milk marketing industry of this State to the full extent permitted by the constitutions of this State and of the United States as applied to legislation enacted under the emergency conditions described in this Article.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 23.

23. Any milk dealer engaged in business on the date on which this Article shall take effect and any producer supplying milk to a milk dealer doing business in this State whose application for license or permit duly filed pursuant to the provisions of this Article, shall not have been disposed of at the expiration of the period of thirty days mentioned in this section, shall be entitled to continue in business under a provisional license or permit issued in the manner and subject to the provisions of Sections 10 and 12 of this Article until such application has been finally disposed of. The provisions of Section four of this Article shall not take effect until the expiration of sixty days after the effective date of the Article.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 2.

24. In the exercise of the police power of the State and to protect the public health and public welfare, it is hereby declared that the production, transportation, delivery processing, storage, distribution and sale of milk in the State is a business affecting the public health and affected with a public interest, and it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this Article shall be an emergency measure enacted for the purpose of regulating and controlling the milk industry in this State for the protection of the health, welfare and comfort of the inhabitants thereof.

1935, ch. 310, sec. 3.

25. This Article shall terminate on June 1, 1937, unless it is extended by act of the General Assembly of Maryland.
