1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 3.

57. Should any section, or part of a section of this Article be held to be invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any remaining section or part of a section of this Article, it being the legislative intent that the remainder of this Article shall stand, notwithstanding the invalidity of such section or part of a section and it is hereby expressly declared that if the provisions of this Article, authorizing the creation of any Board of License Commissioners, should be declared to be invalid by any Court of competent jurisdiction, the licenses theretofore issued by the Clerks of the several Courts, upon the approval of any such Board, pursuant to the provisions of this Article, shall nevertheless be valid, and in such event the Clerks of the several Courts shall be authorized to exercise the rights, powers and duties of the Boards of License Commissioners until June 1, 1934, when the said Boards of License Commissioners shall be appointed as herein provided, and thereafter assume and discharge the powers and duties conferred by this Act.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Sec. 2 of ch. 2 of the acts of 1933 (Special Session) repealed numerous acts and sections of general and local laws and all other laws inconsistent therewith.
