

ARTICLE 5.

APPEALS AND ERRORS.

Appeals from Courts at Law. 12. Bills of exception—how to be prepared. Appeals from Courts of Equity 31. Special orders from which appeal may be taken. 42A. Appeals by receivers, trustees and fiduciaries.	Provisions Relating to Appeals from Courts of Law and Equity. 49. Repealed. Appeals in Criminal Cases. 87A. Technical errors not affecting substantial rights. Appeals in Cases of Contempt. 105. Appeals in cases of direct and constructive contempt.
---	--

Appeals from Courts of Law.

1. This section referred to in construing art. 101, sec. 56. Monumental Printing Co. v. Edell, 163 Md. 555.

2. Jurisdiction on appeal upheld under this section in case of prosecution under art. 56, sec. 228. Motor Co. v. State, 147 Md. 234.
 No right of appeal lies from judgment on writ of scire facias issued out of Superior Court on judgment of justice of peace recorded therein. Ruth v. Durendo, 166 Md. 84.

3. As to mandamus, see art. 60.

4. To fifth note to this section, page 206, vol. 1, of Code, add Price v. State, 159 Md. 496.
 Court of Appeals cannot pass upon the selection of a court to which case shall be removed until after trial has been held and final judgment rendered. Lee v. State, 161 Md. 430.

6. To second, note to this section, page 208, vol. 1, of Code, add Brill v. State, 144 Md. 69; Price v. State, 160 Md. 671.
 This section referred to in construing sec. 44. See notes thereto. Luray v. State, 157 Md. 640.
 Extension of time for signing of bills of exceptions, after hearing, held not to be arbitrary exercise of discretion so as to require appeal to be dismissed. Christian v. Construction Co., 161 Md. 87.

Time of transmitting record.

To first note under this heading, page 207, vol. 1, of Code, add Presstman v. Fine, 162 Md. 136.
 Cited but not construed in Lee v. State, 163 Md. 60.