

superintendents, supervising teachers and helping teachers, high school and elementary school teachers, and teachers in colored schools, and the necessary costs of transporting pupils to public elementary schools and not less than one-half of the cost of transportation of pupils to public high schools when such transportation is approved by the State Superintendent of Schools; provided, that the board of county commissioners of each of the several counties sharing in the Equalization Fund shall levy and collect an annual tax for the schools of not less than forty-seven (47) cents on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property, exclusive of the amount levied for debt service and capital outlay for the schools; provided, further, that in any county, all funds which the county board of education may be authorized to expend for the schools, other than State appropriations, and exclusive of the amount authorized to be expended for debt service and capital outlay, may, for the purposes of the above proviso, be considered as levied by the board of county commissioners, irrespective of the source or sources from which such funds may be derived; and provided, further, that the county board of education in each of the several counties sharing in the Equalization Fund shall expend no less than twenty-four per centum (24%) of the total budget, not including costs of transportation as authorized in this section, debt service and capital outlay, for purposes other than teachers' salaries. But no special appropriation to any county, except as heretofore in this section provided, or to any academy, or to any college or university may be paid from the General State School Fund.

205.

As to levy of taxes for educational purposes, see art. 81, sec. 59.

Chapter 20. Colored Industrial Schools.

1933, ch. 234.

214A. The funds for residence education now received by the University of Maryland from the Government of the United States under the Morrill Act, now amounting to $50,000 per year, shall be divided on the basis of the population of the State of Maryland as shown by the latest census, so that a percentum of these funds equal to the percentum of the negro population to the whole population of the State, shall be expended by the Comptroller of the State, upon recommendation of the Regents of the University of Maryland, for the benefit and in the interests of the Princess Anne Academy.

The Board of Regents of the University of Maryland may allocate such part of the state appropriation for Princess Anne Academy or other funds of the Academy as may be by it deemed advisable, to establish partial scholarships at Morgan College or at institutions outside of the State of Maryland, for negro students who may apply for such privileges, and who may, by adequate tests, be proved worthy to take professional courses or such other work as is not offered in the said Princess Anne Academy, but