

written or printed notice on the door of the courthouse and at five conspicuous places throughout the district, such publication to be made for at least two weeks before the final hearing. During this time a copy of the report shall be on file in the office of the Clerk of the County Commissioners, and shall be open to the inspection of any landowner or other person interested within the district.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 93. 1912, sec. 81J. 1912, ch. 656, sec. 10.

94. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners to summon or cause to be summoned all defendant landowners, who have not signed the petition, when they are known to him or to the viewers, and if it shall appear to the clerk by affidavit or otherwise that the owner or owners of the whole or any share of any tract or tracts of land whose names are unknown and cannot after due diligence be ascertained by the petitioners, the clerk shall give notice in the nature of a summons to be given to all such persons by publication of the petition or of the substance thereof, and describing generally the tract or tracts of land as to which the owner or owners are unknown, with the order of the commissioners thereon, in some newspaper published in the county wherein the land is located. Such notice shall name the day upon which the Board of County Commissioners will hold their final hearing before declaring the drainage district established. This notice shall be printed for four consecutive weeks prior to the date of the hearing.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 94. 1912, sec. 81K. 1912, ch. 656, sec. 11.

95. At the date set for hearing any landowner may appear in person or by counsel and file his objection in writing to the report of the viewers; and it shall be the duty of the board to carefully review the report of the viewers and the objections filed thereto, and make such changes as are necessary to render substantial and equal justice to all the landowners in the district. If, in the opinion of the board, the cost of construction, together with the amount of damages assessed, is not greater than the benefits that will accrue to the land affected, the board shall confirm the report of the viewers, and declare the drainage district as established. If, however, the board finds that the cost of construction, together with the damages assessed, is greater than the resulting benefit that will accrue to the lands affected, the board shall dismiss the proceedings at the cost of the petitioners, and the sureties upon the bond so filed by them shall be liable for such costs.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 95. 1912, sec. 81L. 1912, ch. 656, sec. 12.

96. The clerk of the Board of County Commissioners shall provide a suitable book, to be known as the "Drainage Record," in which he shall transcribe every petition, motion, order, report, judgment or findings of the board in every drainage transaction that may come before it in such manner as to make a complete and continuous record of the case. Copies of all the maps and profiles are to be furnished by the engineer and marked by the clerk "Official Copies," which shall be kept on file by him in his office, and open to inspection.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 96. 1912, sec. 81M. 1912, ch. 656, sec. 13.
